TIPS TO KEEP FIELD WORKERS PRODUCTIVE

of workers have specialized needs*

#1

Dell is the only Tier 1 vendor with a Rugged Extreme product line, ensuring uncompromised performance.

Field workers endure the world's toughest elements every day and it's important for their PCs to be able to do the same. Here is how else you can help them stay effective in any environment.

Give them durability:

Dell's line of Rugged laptops are built with a magnesium alloy chassis and are sealed against water, dust and sand.

2

Give them productivity:

Field workers can thrive with the Rugged's stunning performance, reliable connectivity and outdoor-readable displays.

3

Give them support:

Workers can work even harder with the peace of mind, manageability and security you get with Dell.
